GOLDEN HILL FORTRESS AT PORT ARTHUR IS BEING
DISINTEGRATED.

Garrison Is Starving—Gen. Stoessel Holds Out Grimly Although Surrounded by Scenes of Suffering—Towns People
Favor Surrender—Other
News.

Rome, Oct. 1.—A telegram from Tien Tsin reports that a junk that arrived from Port Arthur today reports the garrison there in the most terrible straits. The men are suffering from a lack of even the commonest necessities of life. Intense misery prevails among all classes, particularly at the hospital, where the wounded are in a wretched condition.

The most serious factor in this suffering is the lessening of the water supply.

The opinion is growing among the townspeople that the time has come when a surrender could be made without loss of honor. This was suggested to General Stoessel, who became frantic, raved like a maniac and declared he would continue fighting as long as a grain of powder remained.

The Japanese are now devoting all their energies to the reduction of Golden Hill fortress, which commands the harbor and is the heart of the defense. Once in Japanese possession the Tiger's Tail fortifications could be reduced with ease, but it is doubtful if further resistance would be offered after the capture of the Golden Hill works.

Upon the stronghold there has been a concentrated fire for days, and this has proved so effective, according to the junkmen, that all the outer works have been reduced to mere heaps of powdered stone, from which the shells hurl clouds of dust into the air when they strike.

So long has this point been a target that the Japanese gunners have the range perfectly and scarcely a shell misses the mark. The answering fire continues spasmodically and with feebleness, but the garrison and commanders are still defiant and now await the attack which the Japanese expect to make within three or four days.

Great as is the hatred between the enemies at this point and brutal as has the warfare become, the Japanese are said to regret the necessity of taking the Russians piecemeal. They regard Stoessel's bravery and stubbornness with admiration, but believe that his continued and hopeless resistance is not in keeping with better judgment, which should lead him to spare the lives of his men from hopeless sacrifice.

The junkmen say that there can be no question of the outcome and that the fortress at the most can last but a few days longer.

street with his wife. They had not lived in Portland very long. Their former home was in Glenwood, Minn., where the parents of the deceased still reside.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Beef went up with a bound yesterday, half a cent a pound being tacked on the price of the better cuts of meats, making the price 2 cents a pound higher than values exacted during the packing house strike. No reasons were given for the latest advance.
The added half cent to the price of choice cuts brought the wholesale price to 17 cents a pound.

Retail dealers and restaurant owners are dismayed at the announcement of still another advance. As one restaurant owner said: "It looks as if the packers need, or want the money." Market conditions do not justify the advance, which means that the packers will make about 3 per cent profit arbitrarily.

JUDGE WHITNEY'S EXPERIENCE.

One of Albany's Most Prominent Citizens Cured of Deafness by Dr. Darrin.

Judge Whitney, so well and favorably known throughout the country and state is another witness to the workings of electricity, as he has just come out of the "electrical chair," not electrocuted, but cured of deafness by Dr. Darrin, the specialist, who is now located at Hotel Corvallis. Dr. Darrin is perfectly frank in telling each one the true condition of his or her case, and just what might be expected as the result of treatment, or whether any treatment would do good.

The rooms of Dr. Darrin are often crowded, and he is kept constantly busy. There are a great many people who will be glad to know that the Dr. has been prevailed upon to visit Corvallis again.

Judge Whitney's Open Letter.

ALBANY, Or.
Dr. Darrin—Dear Sir: Your electrical and other treatment of my ear has been entirely successful. I have been for a number of years past troubled with a roaring in one of my ears, and I was gradually losing my hearing from some cause. My hearing had become so impaired that it was very difficult for me to hear any person talking in an ordinary conversational tone of voice. A short time ago I commenced taking treatment from you for the roaring in my head and deafness. The roaring in my head has entirely ceased and my hearing has returned so that I can hear as well as I ever could. You are at liberty to refer any one to me or publish this letter. Very respectfully,
J. J. WHITNEY.

DR. DARRIN'S PLACE OF BUSINESS.

Dr. Darrin is located at the Corvallis Hotel until October 28, and will give free examination to all.
10 to 5 or 7 to 8 daily. The poor free and those able to pay at the rate of $5 a week or in that proportion of time the case may require. All curable chronic diseases of men and women a specialty.

No case published except by permission of the patient. All business relations with Dr. Darrin strictly confidential. Electrical appliances furnished. One visit is desirable, though many cases can be treated by home treatment by writing symptoms. Eyes tested and glasses fitted.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 1.—Accompanied by three disciples, Carrie Nation, the hatchet-woman, again went on a raid yesterday afternoon.
The women broke two expensive plate glasses in the Mahon company warehouse and were endeavoring to destroy everything in reach when arrested. They were held without bail.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 1.—The Nebraska club of Tacoma, composed of former residents of that state, have decided to charter the steamer Crest and go to Seattle to witness the launching of the battle ship Nebraska, at the Moran Brothers' shipyards, on October 7. The Nebraskans intend to make the affair a most elaborate one.

RAILROAD WRECK

ONE PERSON KILLED, 15 SE-VERELY INJURED AND
MANY OTHERS HURT.

Wife of Vice-President of Pere Marquette Railroad, the Victim—Train Running 60 Miles an Hour—Buying the President—Other
News.

Lyons, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Mrs.
Newman Erb, wife of the vice-president of the Flint and Pere Marquette railroad, was killed, fifteen persons were severely injured and many others were hurt in the wreck of the Western express on the New York Central railroad, a short distance east of this place, at 3 A. M. today. A broken rail caused the accident and threw three sleepers, the last cars on the train, from the track. At the moment a fast freight train was running east, and it raked the derailed sleepers and caused most of the casualties.

Both of Mrs. Erb's legs were cut off above the knees. She died in the Rochester hospital. She and her husband had returned lately from a European trip and were going to Detroit.

A special train from New York bearing Dr. William Myers and relatives of Mrs. Erb made a remarkable run to Rochester, covering the distance of 371 miles in 389 minutes. The party reached Rochester at 1:30 P. M., but Mrs. Erb had died before they arrived.

The express was running 60 miles an hour and struck the broken rail on a curve. The engine of the east-bound freight took the side from the first sleeper, the Dabomey.
The engine stopped and the engineer saw that the wrecked car was filling with steam from his engine.
He grabbed a mattress, which he placed in front of his face, and groped until he found the steam cock on his engine and shut it off, thus saving the occupants of the wrecked car from being scalded to death. Luckily every passenger in the other two sleepers escaped without injury.

The porters threw pocket books and baggage out of the car windows promiscuously, and there was a mad scramble among the injured for their possession. Everything was rightfully restored to the rightful owners, excepting several pocket books which were ground up into an unrecognizable mass.

A. C. Lee, of Albany, who escaped from the wrecked car by breaking through a window lost his pocket book containing $200. Later, he found the wallet lying beside the track, but the money was gone.
Several like instances were reported. A woman bemoaned the loss of a bag containing three thousand dollars' worth of diamonds. They were found intact by a policeman and given to the conductor.

New York, Oct. 1.—The Times, in a two column editorial under the heading, "Buying the President," today says:

"Grover Cleveland would have been impeached by his partisan opponents had he even upon a single occasion stooped to practices so tainted with immorality as those which President Roosevelt consents shall be employed in behalf of his candidacy, not once, not in a few cases merely, but continuously and as a deliberate campaign policy."

"Senator Nelson W. Aldrich is recognized as the most influential representative of the trusts in the United States, but when he assures the officers of great industrial or railroad combinations that a check to the order of the republican national committee will secure immunity from executive molestation under the anti-trust law or otherwise the objects of his solicitations must judge for themselves whether he will be able to keep his covenant after March 4, 1905. The trusts think and believe they are buying, not the presidency but the president. Senator Aldrich encourages that belief. President Roosevelt permits it to be formed and entertained."

"Very different, but immeasurably more scandalous, is the case of George B. Cortelyou, who was secretary of the department of Commerce and Labor."

After describing at length the alleged methods by which Cortelyou

SAVED HIS LIFE.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment.
The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity. 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Graham & Wortham."

extracts money from magnates not friendly to Roosevelt, the Times adds:

"In the vast majority of cases the contribution is willingly, gladly, generously given. Here, as in the case of Aldrich, the corporations think they are buying the president.
When Cortelyou is collector they feel in a much surer sense than in the case of Senator Aldrich that they are buying the president."

"The presence of either one of these men, without a word being spoken, in the office of corporations amenable to Federal punishment is a scandal. It is an invitation to bribe an executive officer, an offer of immunity from prosecution for pay; degradation of the presidential office through its accords; agents.
The humiliation put on sensitive people is a stain on the honor of President Roosevelt."

THE BEST DOCTOR.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Texas, writes, July 19, 1899. "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound Syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pains. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Graham & Wortham.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main St., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long.
Last fall I got for her a bottle of Ho-rehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long.
Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stops the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c, $1.00.
Sold by Graham & Wortham.
